ACCELERATED DEATH BENEFIT RIDER DISCLOSURE

The benefit received under the rider may be taxable. Receipt of the accelerated death benefit may adversely affect your eligibility for Medicaid or other government benefits or entitlements. You should consult your personal tax advisor or the Social Security Administration before requesting the benefit.

This disclosure is a brief description of the Accelerated Death Benefit for Terminal Illness or Nursing Home Confinement Rider and its effects on your policy. This disclosure is not an insurance contract, but only a summary of the coverage provided by the rider. There is no premium or cost of insurance charge for the rider.

BENEFIT DESCRIPTION

While the rider is in force and the insured has a terminal illness or is under nursing home confinement, you may elect to receive the accelerated death benefit before the insured dies. A terminal illness is a medical condition that will result in the insured's death within 12 months. Nursing home confinement means that the insured has been confined to a nursing home for at least 90 consecutive days and is expected to remain confined for the remainder of his or her life. A physician must certify that the insured has a terminal illness or is under nursing home confinement.

The amount available for the accelerated death benefit is your policy's death benefit. You may receive the accelerated death benefit only once.

For a terminal illness, we will reduce the accelerated death benefit by 6%.

For nursing home confinement, we will reduce the accelerated death benefit by the nursing home confinement factor. The nursing home confinement factor varies by policy year as shown in the rider. We will also reduce the accelerated death benefit by a $100 charge and by the amount of any loans and unpaid premiums.

EFFECT OF THE ACCELERATED DEATH BENEFIT ON THE POLICY

The rider will terminate when the accelerated death benefit is paid.

NOTE: If the policy is issued as a graded death benefit, the accelerated death benefit is not available.

The following notice is for Illinois residents:

Illinois Civil Union Law Notice

Signed by Governor Quinn on January 31, 2011, the Religious Freedom Protection and Civil Union Act (Public Act 96-1513, the "Civil Union Law") allowed both same-sex and different-sex couples to enter into a civil union with all of the obligations, protections, and legal rights that Illinois provides to married heterosexual couples. A civil union is a legal relationship granted to unmarried adult partners by the State of Illinois. The Civil Union Law ensures that civil unions and marriage are treated identically under Illinois law. For purposes of Illinois law, the term "spouse" (and other terms that denote the spousal relationship) now includes a party to a civil union.

This notice is to inform you that in compliance with the Act, effective June 1, 2011, under all Mutual of Omaha Insurance Company or its affiliated companies insurance policies and riders covering Illinois residents, any benefit, coverage or right, governed by Illinois state law, provided to a person considered a spouse by marriage will also be provided to a party to a civil union and any benefit, coverage or right, governed by Illinois state law, provided to a child of a marriage will also be provided to a child of a civil union.

Federal law may impact how eligibility and benefits for certain insurance products are treated. For example, federal tax laws that afford favorable income-deferral options to an opposite-sex spouse under the Internal Revenue Code do not currently extend such rights to a same-sex spouse (e.g., the Federal Defense of Marriage Act).

More information of the act or how it affects insurance coverage is available by contacting the company.
